

3rd European Conference on Natural Products
2 - 5 September 2018
DECHEMA e.V., Frankfurt am Main / Germany

Exhibition & Sponsoring Packages

Invitation

In September 2018, the 3rd European Conference on Natural Products will again feature latest advances in secondary metabolite research. With a special emphasis on networking opportunities, the posters exhibition, and the interaction of academic and industrial research, the programme will span a wide range of topics.

The programme, from 09:00-17:30 every day, will comprise lunch and coffee breaks and poster sessions, all located in the exhibition area.

Below you will find our sponsoring and exhibition packages. Please inquire for further options and individually arranged packages

Looking forward to hearing from you,
