

SYNFLOW

Innovative Synthesis in Continuous-Flow Processes for Sustainable Chemical Production

Informationen zum Projekt

SYNFLOW is a large-scale collaborative research project within the 7th European Framework Programme for Research and Technological Development. The project started September 1, 2010.

19 industrial and academic partners from 8 European countries have formed a consortium combining leading expertise in catalysis, organic synthesis and reaction and process engineering.

Christoph Steinbach -263

Alexis Bazzanella -343